Prescription Druggist.

To accommodate our customers we have since put on our shelves the only complete line of Remedies used by Homoeopathic Physicians carried in the city. For this reason the impression exists in some quarters that we have only Homoeopathic goods.

Such is not the fact. On the contrary, we have one of the largest and most complete drug stocks in the city, which is in the care of competent Pharmacists of long experience in compounding and dispensing prescriptions of all kinds.

Having no interest in the sale of patent medicines we do no counterfeiting, but aid to do a legitimate prescription and physician's supply business, depending on the profession and the public desire for reliable drugs at reasonable prices for a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed on us in the past.

Wholesale and Retail Drug Business, our Optician, Surgical and Sundry Departments are not neglected. Oculists' Prescriptions and Eye Glasses requiring special Frames and Setting are made to order and carefully adjusted. Our stock of surgical instruments and Dressings is complete, and personal attention is given to the selection and fitting of appliances for deformities, trusses, etc. All our elastic goods, hose, knickerbockers, and stockings are furnished fresh from our own looms, insuring a perfect fit and the best possible wear.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

This evening will be presented a high class mystery entertainment when Jewett the magician will present his latest performance of surprises and sensations. He comes to New Haven under the especial patronage of Admiral Foote post, No. 17, G. A. R., and accompanying him is Little Ruby, the child dancer, who tripped into the hearts of the English nobility and who will startle her New Haven audience without a doubt. Jewett is one of the best magicians of the day, a fact that has just been testified to by an engagement he has made to appear with Hermann and Kollar in a grand feat of magic at the Metropolitan opera house, New York, at an early date. Sale of seats now open.

The costumes worn in "Aristocracy," which appears at the Hyperion on the 18th instant, for the benefit of the theater attaches, are said to be magnificent, having just been purchased new. It is a well known fact that ladies appearing at court have to be provided with special costumes for the occasion. In "Aristocracy" Virginia will wear heavy white broadened silk trimmed with Valenciennes lace, Diana a white satin finished with red velvet, and Katherine a handsome pale blue broadened silk with flower embossed skirt and court train, the whole richly studded with pearls. The management has certainly spared no expense in this matter, and finer dresses have not been seen on the stage this season. Sale of seats now open.

Rice's Surprise Party in "1492" will play a return engagement on Saturday next. There will be a matinee as well as an evening performance. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

Grand Opera House.

Bartley Campbell's greatest success, "The Galley Slave," is the bill the first three days this week, with the usual Wednesday matinee.

In the writing of the play Mr. Campbell is said to have had ever before him a desire "to glorify the nobility of man and the honor of woman."

The characters he gives us are all creatures of flesh and blood drawn by a master hand. There are a number of beautiful stage pictures, and among these the double wedding in the third act has attracted universal comment.

The comedy element has not been neglected, and is altogether legitimate. The company includes many famous players, such as W. W. Allen, J. A. Wheelock, Carroll Daly, Frank Roberts, C. W. Goodrich, Ludovick Rogers, Lora Addison Clift, Harriett Sheldon and Daudie Douglas.

Edwin Barbour's thrilling melodrama, "Land of the Midnight Sun," will be the attraction the last three days this week.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.

Novelty is the great object aimed at in the entertainments presented to the patrons of the Wonderland. And success attends the effort. This week the leading attraction is Little Gerlie Cochran, known as the mental child wonder.

Gerlie Cochran is gifted with a most extraordinary memory, being able to memorize anything almost at sight, and her case has aroused the interested attention of noted English and American professors of learning who have concerned themselves with discussions of the limitations of the memory. The Wonderland is fortunate in securing the little prodigy. With her will be associated on the bill Gerlie Gilson, the dashing American vaudeville star; Conway and Leland, Heusted and Guyer, O'Brien and Buckley, and a number of other leading vaudeville stars.
